Attendees: Arek Owczarek, Laurie McLellan, Kasson Bratton

Minutes: Samantha Zou

Matters to follow up:

1. JEDI – Weekly Update

Proposals or Agenda:

2. Calendar Semester Dates 2024-25
3. International Day
4. Earth Week

Outcomes
Description	By When	By Whom
1. This week, JEDI taskforce has announced the successful candidate for non-teaching staff representative. JEDI taskforce arranged International Women's Day Breakfast for NIS community on Thursday morning.	Week 24	JEDI
2. The semester dates for SY2024-2025 will be based on an even number of student school days.	Ongoing	SLT
3. Due to calendar changes imposed on NIS impacting student sports activities on the weekend of April 13-14, the date of International Day has been reconsidered. The dates for the following weekend are unsuitable due to other programmed student activities. SLT will follow up with International Day organisers looking at any option that can be found. If no suitable alternative date works the event will remain on Sunday, April 14 as on the published calendar.	Ongoing	SLT
4. SLT mentioned that the Earth Week is scheduled during Week 29. Event agenda and preparation will begin.	Week 29	SLT
